FALL WEALTH SUMMIT

Knowing Your Story: A Path to Greater Joy

Join us as we welcome Angus Fletcher (PhD, Yale), a nationally renowned OSU professor whose work has been called “mind-blowing” by Malcolm Gladwell and “life changing” by Brene Brown. In conversation with Partner & Co-Founder Matt Palmer, Angus will discuss his groundbreaking research on the power of our own stories to expand our impact in life and find healing for ourselves and others.

His work will help us better understand the gift of our own intelligence and our capacity to become the persons God made us to be.

This is a don't miss opportunity to listen to a remarkable learner and teacher.

 Thursday, October 24
