Legacy of Mercy: The Story of a Mother's Forgiveness

Join us as Rachel Muha shares the powerful story of her son's murder and her decision to forgive her son's killers. Rachel now honors her son's memory through the Brian Muha Foundation Run the Race Center, a ministry and school that serves inner city children and youth on the west side of Columbus – giving them something Brian's murderers didn't have - hope.

Bring a friend or two and be ready to have your own heart challenged to forgive those who have hurt you.
